A Measure Which Will Greatly Af-

Last Summer General Rosecrans applied to the Treasury Department for an appointment of a special agent to examine into the reported evasions of the Chinese Restrictive Act by Chinese coming into the United States by way of British Columbia. The Secretary of the Treasury concurred in Rosecrans' suggestions, but did not accept the man named by the California Congressman, saying that he already had a good man for the place who had been recommended by Senator Jones of Nevada. Rosecrans withdrew the name he had proposed and the appointment was made. Last week Rosecrans applied to the Treasury Department to know what had become of the special agent. After a hunt through several Bureaus he found that the man had been requested to be assigned to duty in Minnesota, where he now is. He has never been on the Pacific Coast at all. Christmas trees.

How The Trees Looked and What Was Done in Reno's Churches Last Evening.

TRINITY CRUBCH.

Plain evergreen decorations was the rule at Trinity Church. The tree was the finest evergreen ever seen in Reno, being thirty-six feet in hight, and beautifully proportioned. It was heavily laden with presents for the 220 children and teachers, and also contained many for citizens. The literary exercises consisted of singing "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing;" prayer; chanting of the Lord's prayer; responsive reading; singing "Hark! Angelie Voices Sounding;" scripture lesson reading; Address by Rev. W. R. Jenvey, followed by the distribution of the presents; "What Means This Glory," was sung in con-

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. At the Congregational Church there were two trees, one for the Sabbath School children and the other for outsiders. Both were loaded down with pretty and useful gifts the distribution of which gladdened the heart of young and old. Before the event of the evening, the advent of Stewart Tolles as Santa Claus, there was an opening chorus, a dust by the Misses Finlayson, a reading, a solo by Mrs. Bell and remarks by the pastor, all of which was
